The City Mission Board of the St. Louis Baptist Association will meet at the Third Baptist Church this evening, and matters of special importance will be considered.

The Reverend Doctor Meade C. Williams has been appointed a member of the Home Mission Committee of the St. Louis Presbytery. This appointment was made at the request of the committee itself.

The Reverend S. M. McClure, the new pastor of the Goode Avenue M. E. Church, was yesterday introduced to the Methodist ministers' meeting. Mr. McClure comes from the Ohio Conference to succeed the Reverend B. P. White, who was transferred to that same conference.

The Newell revival meetings have returned to the Washington and Compton Avenue Presbyterian Church, where they will meet as formerly, afternoon and evening, until further announcement, One cause entering into the removal from Centenary Church was the beginning of the extensive repairs proposed. The committee is seeking a downtown location for the evening meetings, but as yet has not secured one. Father John Thomas Reynolds, who was recently ordained at Springfield, Mass., has been appointed assistant paster at St. Michael's Church, at Eleventh and Clinton

MEETINGS OF MINISTERS.

Church Topics Discussed-Reports and Papers Read.

The Reverend Joel A. Barker, read an interesting paper before the Methodist Episcopal Minister's meeting yesterday on, How To Secure the Attendance of the Children at the Public Service." He suggested the same firmness on the part of parents, in sending their children to Sunday school, as is exercised in securing to them a secular education. He urged that preachers carefully observe the law of adaptation in presenting the truth to children.

Dressy Little Costume for a Small

Metallic velvet is one of the season's most attractive fabrics. It comes in all col-ors, and the spots are made in gold, silver or copper. The guimpe dress illustrated is developed in marine blue velvet, spotted with silver.

8209-GIRLS' GUIMPE DRESS. 4, 6, 8, 10 and 12 years.

The full sleeves are half length, gathered at upper and lower edges. The pattern is given high neck, with long sleeves, if this style is preferred. When made as illustrated it should be worn with a fancy guimpe, except for evening wear, when the neck and arms may be bare.

The skirt is full and closes in the center back. It is arranged on the belt and flares stylishly around the bottom.

The mode is appropriate for silk, poplin, ladies' cloth or light-weight wash fabrics, with velvet, lace, ribbon or tucked mousseline for trimming.

To make the dress for a girl of 3 years will require one and three-quarters yards of forty-four-inch material. The pattern, No. 839, is cut in sizes for girls 4, 6, 2, 16 and 12 years.
